NORTH SEA AFFAIR

Great Britain Sent a Long and Urgent Note to the Russian Government.

THE JINGO ELEMENT WANTS WAR.

Note Contains the Announcement That the Situation is One Which Does Not Brook Delay.

No Limit Must Be Set By Russia to Her Apology or the Extent of Compensation For the Sufferers.

London, Oct. 25.—Great Britain Monday sent a long and urgent note to the Russian government officially detailing the circumstances of the amazing and unexplained attack by the Russian second Pacific squadron during the night of October 21, on British fishing boats in the North sea. The text of the note has not been given out, but it is officially stated from the foreign office that it contains the significant announcement that "the situation is one in which the opinion of his majesty's government does not brook delay."

Meanwhile the conservative public and press are remarkably undemonstrative. As usual the jingo element demands war, and even in official quarters some go so far as to say that it may be necessary to stop the Pacific fleet pending settlement of the whole affair, though this extreme measure, it is believed, will not be necessary. Everywhere there is evidence of the very positive opinion that this is no time for the usual diplomatic dilly dallying, that there must be no delay and no limit set by Russia to her apology or the extent of compensation for sufferers by what King Edward himself terms "The unwarrantable action" of the Baltic squadron commanders.

There is no attempt anywhere among men of responsibility to magnify the occurrence into a deliberate act of war; but in view of the present inability to find an explanation there is being poured upon the heads of the officers of the squadron a flood of invective and insinuation, though incompetence before and thereafter complete panic is the most generally accepted explanation. Thus far no official word has been received from St. Petersburg as to the attitude of the Russian government. The fact that it had been decided during the day to prepare a semi-official note expressing the regret of the Russian government and its willingness to make full reparation so soon as the responsibility is fixed was communicated to Lord Lansdowne.

The absence during the day of Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, necessarily caused some delay; but the Russian charge d'affaires, who called at the foreign office on request by note from Lord Lansdowne, unofficially expressed deep regret and, as far as it was possible for him to do, gave assurance of speedy action by the Russian government. Lord Lansdowne, in this interview, told M. Sansonoff, the charge, that he desired to see Ambassador Benckendorff Tuesday morning. Lord Lansdowne asked M. Sansonoff if he could offer any explanation of the affair, and the latter replied that he only knew what had appeared in the papers and that he had not received any word up to that time from St. Petersburg. Lord Lansdowne gave no suggestion as to what might be done in the matter.

At the Russian embassy it was stated that "the whole affair was so obviously a mistake, from whatever cause, that Russia's course was plainly dictated, namely, 'Apology and ample compensation.'"

The actual casualties during the one-sided bombardment off Dogger bank can be correctly stated since the arrival at London Monday evening of the carrying ship Swift, reporting the safety of the missing trawlers. The Swift left the fleet at 10 a. m. on October 23. Her captain said:

"The Russians gave not the slightest warning prior to the commencement of the firing. The admiral of the fishing fleet sent up a rocket warning, and then the firing commenced. He again sent up four green rockets, but this only seemed to increase the ferocity of the bombardment. The poor marksmanship of the Russian gunners was the only thing that saved the entire fleet within range of the searchlights and guns."

At the inquest at Hull Monday it was stated that one vessel, the Crane, was sunk and that four or five were more or less damaged. In the statement of the coroner to the jury that official said it was a question of very grave and possibly international importance; but it would be their duty to find who were the murderers of the dead men. After the identification of the bodies, the inquest adjourned to November 2.

IN A SINKING CONDITION.

The Hull of a Ship With Provisions For the Baltic Fleet Pierced.

London, Oct. 25.—The steamship Esperanza, which is due to sail from Barry with provisions for the Russian Baltic fleet, was found Monday to be in a sinking condition, her hull having been pierced below the water line. The injury is not explained, but it must have been the wanton act of some man employed about the ship in resentment of the North Sea incident.

AT ST. PETERSBURG.

The Firing on the British Fishermen Considered as a Blunder.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—No official or unofficial Russian explanation of the unfortunate affair off Dogger bank is forthcoming up to last midnight and the world must wait to hear Vice Adm. Rojestvenski's version of the firing upon the British fishermen. The failure of steam trawlers with their nets out to obey the signals from the Russian warships or the nervousness of some officer who imagined that fishermen working with their nets in the water were laying mines, may be responsible for the blunder. As soon as the facts are established it is certain that the Russian government will voluntarily offer the fullest reparation.

It is even hinted that the emperor Tuesday will send a formal message to King Edward conveying his profound sorrow for the incident and offering to make what reparation is possible as soon as the responsibility can be fixed. These advance assurances, it is hoped, will be met in an amicable spirit by Great Britain.

BRITISH PACIFIC SQUADRON.

It Is Directed to Concentrate at Esquimaux Immediately.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 25.—It was learned from officials at Esquimaux Monday night that orders have been received from admiralty headquarters directing the immediate concentration of the entire Pacific squadron at Esquimaux. H. M. S. Flora, now in Central American waters has been ordered to return at once instead of proceeding to Valparaiso. There is much activity at the naval station and imperial barracks.

BUREAU OF EQUIPMENT.

The Annual Report of Rr. Adm. Henry N. Manney, the Chief.

Washington, Oct. 25.—One of the principal recommendations of Rr. Adm. Henry N. Manney, chief of the bureau of equipment, in his annual report approved by Secretary Morton Monday, is that congress be asked for an appropriation of $160,000 for the further equipment of the navy with wireless telegraphy. For the construction of a coal storage plant at the naval station, Charleston, $200,000 is asked. Other recommendations of importance are: Navy yard, Pensacola, a modern coal plant; navy yard, Mare Island, bureau of equipment building costing $125,000; naval observatory, $25,000; naval station, San Juan, equipment workshop and foundry, $125,000. Adm. Manney recommends the transfer of the compass office from the bureau of equipment to the naval conservatory.

BOTH ARMIES ENTRENCHING.

No Resumption of Fighting of a General Character.

New York, Oct. 25.—There has been no resumption of fighting of a general character on the Shakhe river. Both Russians and Japanese are entrenching their positions. The outposts are within 700 yards of each other and less than four miles separates the main armies. A scarcity of fuel is causing the soldiers to suffer greatly since cold weather set in. St. Petersburg has information that the Japanese army confronting Gen. Kuropatkin is receiving heavy reinforcements from the Port Arthur army and direct from Japan.

SECRETARY OF WAR TAFT.

He Will Start From Pensacola Instead of Tampa For Panama.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The navy department has determined that Secretary Taft's visit to Panama will start from Pensacola instead of Tampa, as was originally projected, the reason being that the Columbia, which is to carry the party, can not enter Tampa harbor safely because of her great draft. The party expects to start from Pensacola on the 14th and the Columbia will be speeded with her triple screws to make the trip to Colon within four days.

A Paris dentist who committed suicide left instructions that his body was to be stuffed.

DIVORCE QUESTION

An Agreement Reached by the Episcopal House of Bishops and House of Deputies.

LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE AT ONCE

An Innocent Party to a Divorce For Infidelity Can Remarry After One Year Has Elapsed.

Satisfactory Evidence Touching Facts in the Case Must Be Laid Before the Ecclesiastical Authority Before the Remarriage.

Boston, Oct. 25.—An agreement on the divorce question was reached Monday by the house of bishops and the house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention, after many days of discussion. That section of the canon bearing directly on the remarriage of divorced persons, which was amended by the bishops Saturday, assented to by the deputies Monday, and become effective at once, is as follows:

"No minister, knowingly after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has been or is the husband or the wife of any other person living, from whom he or she has been divorced for any cause arising after marriage. But this canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for adultery, provided, that before the application for such remarriage a period of not less than one year shall have elapsed, after evidence touching the facts in the case, including a copy of the court's decree, and record if practicable, with such proof that the defendant was personally served or appeared in the action, to be laid before the ecclesiastical authority and such ecclesiastical authority, having taken legal advice thereon, shall have declared in writing that in his judgment the case of the applicant conforms to the requirements of this canon, and provided, further, that it shall be within the discretion of any minister to decline to solemnize any marriage."

The bishops adopted an amendment to a section referring to the administration of sacraments providing that if a clergyman shall have reasonable cause to doubt whether a person has been married, "otherwise as the word of God and discipline of this church allow" such clergyman shall refer the matter to the bishop before administering the sacraments. The deputies had made an exception in favor of "the innocent party divorced" on the ground of adultery, who had remarried, but the bishops struck out the exception. Their action was accepted by the house of deputies Monday.

Leading churchmen expressed the opinion that the restrictions placed upon the remarriage of an innocent party to a divorce are so stringent that the remarriage of divorced persons will be rare in the church hereafter. It is understood, however, that an attempt will be made to have the next convention specifically declare against remarriage under any conditions.

The house of deputies rejected, after a long debate, a resolution introduced by Rev. B. Talbot Rogers, of Fon du Lac, Wis., to strike out the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of the book of common prayer.

Both houses have appointed a joint commission to consider the advisability of electing a presiding bishop of the church. As president, the senior bishop occupies this position, and it is claimed that the duties are too heavy for an aged diocesan. The commission will report to the next convention.

Owensboro, Ky., Oct. 25.—The mutilated body of Captain S. H. Jesse, one of the most prominent citizens of Daviess county, was found in his barn at his home near Owensboro Monday. Pigs had badly mutilated the dead man's body. It was only half an hour previous to the finding of the body that a member of the family talked with Captain Jesse in the barn. He remarked that he was not feeling very well. He had been a sufferer from heart disease for a year. The coroner was summoned, and held an inquest over the remains. A verdict was returned that he came to his death from a paralytic stroke.

Colson was exhumed on Judge Rice's order, and his organs are now in the hands of Dr. S. E. Woody, who is making an examination to determine the cause of death and also the effect, if any, on the brain.

FOUR CHILDREN CREMATED.

They Were Playing in a Vacant House and Set It On Fire.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 25.—Four little children, names unknown, were burned to death at Jintown, on Green river, while playing in a vacant dwelling. There were five of the little ones at play, and they set fire to the house. The four who lost their lives were on the upper floor. All the male inhabitants of the town were at work in the mines, and when they arrived the house had been destroyed, and the charred remains of the children were found in the debris.

A NEGRO LYNCHED.

Taken From the Police Station by Masked Men and Shot to Death.

AN UPRISING IS THREATENED.

Militiamen Are Patrolling the Negro Section of Berkeley, Va., and Trouble May Occur.

Rr. Adm. Harrington Has Directed the Marines and Sailors at St. Helena Naval Reservation to Be in Readiness For Action.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 25.—George W. Blount, the colored proprietor of a fish and oyster shop in the suburbs of Berkeley, Va., and a character generally offensive to every white man, woman and child in Berkeley, was taken out of the little frame police station in Berkeley by four masked men and shot to death while two other masked men kept the policeman in charge of the station and a member of the town department, who was in the station office, covered with revolvers.

W. W. Robertson, a lumber dealer and resident of Berkeley, told Mayor Allen, of that place, Monday that he witnessed the killing from his bedroom window and that Blount's screams awakened him. Four masked men, he said, had Blount in the middle of the street and were clubbing him. Three of the men became frightened at their victim's cries and fled, but the other, whom Robertson believes was white, drew a pistol and shot Blount through the back of his head.

Blount on Saturday night last refused to permit Berkeley Policeman T. D. Holloman to enter his place to arrest another Negro charged with shooting, and when Holloman persisted in entering Blount picked up a lighted lamp and struck the officer in the face with it. Holloman was horribly burned and cut, and four teeth were practically knocked out. A squad of policemen and citizens then seized Blount and the other Negro, and landed them in the Berkeley police station, which is a one-story wooden building. The feeling became intense against Blount and the lynching followed.

The Negroes in the town are in an ugly mood and threaten to retaliate. An uprising is feared.

Norfolk militiamen are patrolling the Negro section of Berkeley, and while everything seems quiet on the surface, there is a possibility that trouble may occur at any moment. Rr. Adm. Harrington, commanding the Norfolk navy yard, Monday directed the marines and sailors at St. Helena naval reservation near Berkeley to be in readiness for action in case of a Negro uprising.

Berkeley, the scene of the lynching of the Negro Blount, is now under martial law. Two encounters occurred Monday night between the troops and Negroes. One Negro refused to obey orders to move on and was bayoneted. He is not seriously hurt.

Two militiamen called upon a Negro seen crossing a lot to halt. In reply he opened fire on them and they replied. The Negro fired three times and fell in front of the soldiers' fire. As they rushed toward him he jumped up and ran, escaping in the darkness. It is thought he is wounded. There is an ugly undercurrent of feeling existing among the Negroes of the town.

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND in McClure's for November gives his personal estimate of Judge Parker as a candidate for President. He says of him in part:

"We sometimes find features of character so prominently visible in a man's mental organization that, like the features of his countenance, they need no proof of their existence. This is pre-eminently true of Judge Parker's deliberation in reaching conclusions and his inherent judicial conservatism. These qualities of his mind are so distinctly apparent that they are at once seen and known by all who gain the slightest knowledge of the man. This should make it thoroughly understood that those whose love Presidential pyrotechnics must look elsewhere.

"I have known Alton B. Parker for more than twenty years. He impressed me on our first acquaintance as a sincere, honest and able man; and this impression has, with time and observation, grown to clear and undoubting conviction. I am sure that I venture nothing in making the positive assertion that the guiding trait of his character is his constant and unyielding devotion to duty.

"Judge Parker's experience in judicial investigation, added to his natural aptitude in the same direction, ought to satisfy the most cautious and exacting of his abundant ability to discover in the light of Constitutional requirements, and in the atmosphere of enlightened but conservative Americanism, the manner in which a President should best serve his countrymen.

"I am persuaded that the American people will make no mistake if they place implicit reliance in Alton B. Parker's devotion to duty, in his clear perception of the path of duty, in his steadfast persistency against all temptation to leave the way where duty leads and in his safe and conservative conceptions of Presidential responsibilities."

As no rain to amount to anything has fallen in this vicinity for over two months, the scarcity of water has at last become distressing. The creeks, with the exception of a few stagnant pools, are as dry as a brush fence. Springs are now dry which were never known to give out before. Some farmers have to drive stock for miles to water and many neighbors have to depend on others for their supply of drinking water. Mr. L. M. Collis, the miller, has had two wells excavated, one of them a driven well, but neither one will supply his mill. The last named has a mineral in it which clogs the pipes in the boiler. So taking advantage of the protracted drought, Mr. Collis has had an excavation made in the creek bed opposite the mill, eight feet deep, from twelve to fifteen feet wide and twenty-five or thirty feet long with a gradual upward slope to the lower end. A substantial dam has been constructed above it with a sufficient fall to keep the pool thoroughly cleaned out of mud and it is hoped that if it ever does rain, enough water will linger in it between showers to keep the mill running.

Mr. J. C. Acheson of Danville will deliver a lecture to men next Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. Subject, "The Three Sirens." Every man in Maysville should hear this masterly address. You are welcome.

According to messages sent from Mt. Sterling, it is shown that the work of President W. B. Hawkins of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association has been eminently successful. It is said that several hundred acres of Montgomery County tobacco have been signed over to the association.

Much excitement was created at Lexington Monday over the news that Corporal Frank Stevenson had been charged with forging the name of a United States Army Paymaster to a check for $8,000. Stevenson was married there last month to Miss Mollie Mulligan, daughter of Judge Jas. H. Mulligan. The wedding of the couple was without sanction of Judge Mulligan, who had received various reports from Middlesboro concerning Stevenson. Stevenson refused to give his permanent home address to the priest who performed the marriage ceremony, and asked that the bans of the church be not published. The couple went to Middlesboro last Thursday. Mrs. Stevenson returned to the home of her sister, Mrs. Dr. Molloy, last Saturday.

Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge of Lexington continues very ill and grave fears are again felt as to his recovery.

You Can Be Cured.

No. 11 Cedar Terrace,
HOT SPRINGS, ARK., April 23, 1903.

When I was first married I found that my strength and health were gradually diminishing. I became nervous and irritable, and was in bed a week and sometimes ten days of every month, and had intense bearing down pains. My husband had the best physician for me and I used his medicine for nearly four months, but I gradually grew worse, had less strength, and finally, I was unable to leave my bed at all.

A friend who was calling on me brought me a bottle of Wine of Cardui and was so fond in its praise that I told her that I would take it to please her.

I was surprised and pleased that before I had used the bottle I really felt better, so I kept on using it. Eight bottles brought back my lost health and strength, and I have not had a sick day in six months.

ETTA FINNEGAN

Treasurer, St. Andrews' Society.

WINE OF CARDUI

Mrs. Finnegan had little hope of relief because she knew that every time she had those spells of menstrual suffering with attendant bearing down pains she was weaker. And every month the pain was growing more severe.

But Mrs. Finnegan was cured by Wine of Cardui. She is now so well that there are few women who would not be glad to have the health she has. And any woman who has those dreaded bearing down pains can have the same relief.

You can be free from menstrual irregularities if you take this pure vegetable wine. Why don't you take it when you see what it has done for others? Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui today.

Your druggist has $1.00 bottles.

John Burton, a farm hand living near Middlesboro, was found Saturday morning two miles from town in a terribly mangled condition, from which he died at 2 o'clock that afternoon. William Clark, son of a prominent Bourbon County citizen, and a negro, William Hook, were arrested charged with the crime. Clarke and Hook were seen with Burton and all had been drinking. Suspicion pointed to Clarke and Hook and after Burton's death they were arrested. The negro confessed that Clarke struck Burton on the head and he robbed him of $10 or 12. An iron rod which the negro was seen carrying when the three left the saloon was found near the scene of the murder, covered with blood.

JOHN I. WINTER,

MAYSVILLE, KY

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Order Issued For the Annual Reunion at the Pewee Valley Home Friday, November 11th.

The following order signed by Commander Bennett H. Young and Adjutant General W. A. Milton, has been issued for the annual reunion of Confederate Veterans, November 11, Pewee Valley being designated as the place for the gathering:

The State annual reunion of the Kentucky Division U. C. V., is hereby called at the Confederate Home, at Pewee Valley, for November 11, 1901, at 11 o'clock a. m. The General Commanding was directed to call this meeting at such time as would suit the convenience of the camps. This call has been delayed by the desire to have the new buildings at the Home completed before the assembly of the members of the State reunion.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky, by its superb generosity, has provided the necessary means to build an infirmary and to provide all conveniences and comforts for these infirm and aged veterans, and it was believed that, to see these buildings completed and furnished and the Home refitted, it would be the source of profound gratification to the Confederates throughout the State.

With these new additions the Kentucky Confederate Home stands at the forefront of such institutions in the South, and it is of necessity a source of gratification to know that Kentucky has made such liberal provisions to give her sons who wore the gray all that appreciation and valor could demand in their declining years. The Governor has consented to be present on this occasion, and formal exercises will be had in connection with the opening of the new infirmary and other buildings.

All Confederates, whether members of the association or not, are urgently requested to come and unite in this auspicious and happy ceremony, and the Daughters and Sons everywhere are also urged to be present so that they may join with the veterans in making this occasion delightful and pleasing.

In connection with this reunion it will be necessary to elect a Commander for the State Division, and also Commanders for the four brigades which exist under the State organization. The whole State is entitled to 163 votes.

The camps are requested to appoint delegates. If they have not already been elected, upon the basis of the representation at the Nashville reunion, and all information as to the number of delegates from each camp can be secured by application to the Adjutant General at Louisville.

No period in the history of Mexico is more interesting than the short and brilliant reign and meteor-like fall of the Emperor Maximilian. The last will of L. W. Galbraith, dated 1885, was lodged for record in the County Clerk's office. He bequeaths all his property, real and personal, to his wife, Mollie Davis Galbraith, after his debts are paid, except such amount as his brother Andrew may owe him. Judge G. S. Wall was appointed administrator with the will annexed, Dr. A. H. Wall surety.

The Lexington Democrat says the "Liberty Belles" girls will long be remembered there. They were the limit. The night clerk at one of the hotels, where a bunch of them registered, had to put out the lights in the office, cafe and halls to induce quiet, and the night clerk at one of the other hotels was overruled with guests for the night. Signa Jane, the stuttering girl, got mad at the manager because he called her down, packed up her duds and left the show.
